The Metropolitan Youth Symphony Orchestras (MYSO) of Atlanta has been enriching the lives of young musicians here in Atlanta for more than 16 years. MYSO provides talented young musicians the opportunity to expand their musical training beyond what is available in their school orchestra or band programs. In addition to developing musically, by “educating young musicians to excellence,” MYSO of Atlanta instills in its members self-discipline, teamwork, leadership skills, and a strong work ethic. This prepares them for a successful and rewarding life that benefits both the musician and society.

Each year, MYSO holds its major fundraising event: “MYSO ANNUAL GALA,” consisting of dinner, dancing, a silent auction, and performances by all of our musicians, including our Chamber Ensembles, String Orchestra and Symphony Orchestra. This year, the Gala is being held on February 19, 2011 at the Georgia Tech Hotel and Conference Center. More than 400 people attend this event from more than 16 Metropolitan Atlanta counties.

Please consider joining us in this fundraising event by donating to our silent auction or purchasing ad space in the evening’s program. All donors are recognized with a listing in the Gala program and the auction catalog. MYSO of Atlanta is a 501(c)(3) non-profit educational organization. Because MYSO is run by parent volunteers, more than 95% of donated funds go directly to programming. Your donation is tax deductible and will be acknowledged with a separately mailed receipt for tax purposes.

Donations may be given to parent volunteers presenting this letter, or you may contact us directly.
